Interim City of Buffalo Comptroller Barbara Miller-Williams names Andrew A. SanFilippo to serve as Deputy Comptroller with the Department of Audit and Control

Interim City of Buffalo Comptroller Barbara Miller-Williams today announced that she will be appointing former City of Buffalo Comptroller and current Executive Deputy Comptroller for the Office of State and Local Government Accountability, Andrew A. SanFilippo to the position of City of Buffalo Deputy Comptroller.

"In an effort to add additional high level financial oversight experience to my office and provide strong fiscal accountability to the citizens and tax payers of Buffalo, I believe Mr. SanFilippo will prove to be an asset within the Department of Audit and Control as the Deputy Comptroller" said Miller-Williams.

State Comptroller Thomas P. DiNapoli stated Mr. SanFilippo was an important part of his administration for the last eight years. He had high praises for SanFilippo's work with the Office of State and Local Government Accountability Department and wishes him well in his return to his Buffalo roots.

SanFilippo said that he is honored to be joining Comptroller Miller-Williams as her Deputy and bringing nearly 40 years of governmental financial experience to the Buffalo Comptroller's Office.

"As I will be departing from my State position, I was honored to serve under Comptroller DiNapoli and I leave knowing the State fiscal watchdog role is in good hands.

Comptroller Miller-Williams stated today, "My vision to protect the citizens and taxpayers' financial stability moves forward with the appointment of Andrew
